What the market says about UUBO
(as reported in Chambers Global and The IFLR1000)

“Best value for money law firm in Nigeria by a mile. You get world-class work done, on time without paying more than you would have if you had used other firms. Firm has a depth of partners across the African region that makes our acquisition easier. The quality of work from Udo Udoma has always been first class. The partners are extremely competent and customer service is great.”

“Excellent. Deeply professional.”

“High quality, responsive and conscious of deadlines.”

“We found them to be very commercially oriented in their approach to legal advice. In situations where we faced obstacles moving our transactions forward, we found them to be solutions-driven in their advice.”

“They understand the local environment very well and are plugged into the market. Quality first draft of agreements. Very responsive.”

“They are responsive, hardworking, practical and they know their market.”
